STILL TIED FOR FIRST.

Indianapolis and Louisville Fighting for First Place.

Indianapolis and Louisville are now fighting desperately for first place in the American Association championship race. For two days the two teams have been tied for first honors and to-day's game may see another tie or may witness one of the teams take the lead. The Hoosiers have made a grand fight since they left home and have won seven and lost three games of the ten played. The Colonels have not done nearly so well, and as a result Indianapolis has forged ahead and the two teams are now tied for first. Indianapolis will probably play a double-header at Milwaukee to-day, and the outcome of the games will be watched with interest. The Hoosiers will play at Kansas City before returning home. The long series at home will begin next Friday and with the exception of one series away from home the team will play here until after the Labor day series, when Indianapolis leaves for the final whirl around the entire circuit. Louisville will finish the games in Indianapolis on Labor day and Sept. 2.

Manager Watkins has released Ralph Miller and Frank Killen has joined the team. Pitcher Hermann, recently released by Milwaukee, has been signed by Indianapolis. Miller's release was not altogether unexpected. It is known that Manager Watkins has been on the verge of giving him his release for some time, but continued giving him "one more chance." Miller is an erratic pitcher. He twirled Score: some good ball for Indianapolis and also fault seemed to be his failure to locate the plate, and this was due to his laziness or indifference in practice. # AQUATIC CLUB REGATTA

GOOD SPORT WITNESSED BY SMALL CROWD AT BROAD RIPPLE.

Thomas Hedian Won the Scalling Race, with Richmond Levering Second-Summary of Events.

The fourth annual regatta of the Indianapolis Aquatic Club was held at Broad Ripple yesterday afternoon, and the sport was interesting, although it was only witnessed by a small crowd. The most exciting events were the single sculling and the canoe races. The single sculling race was won by Thomas Hedian, with Richmond Levering second. The distance was one mile, and Hedian won by three-quarters of a boat length. Hedian crossed the tape first on the first trial, but it was decided that the event should be raced again, as Lever-Left on bases-Chicago, 5; Baltimore, 6. ing had mistaken the finish line and stopped rowing before the line was reached. On the second trial Hedian again won by about the while Levering used a shell that was as burdensome as a tub. After the race Mortimer Levering, father of the young sculler, stated that he had ordered a modern shell for his son, and it will arrive here within two or three weeks. The canoe races also furnished good sport. In the single canoe race, Guy Robbins was an easy winner. The double Indian canoe race was won by James Manion and Guy Robbins. The double canoe race was captured by Carl Fisher and Fred Charlton. There were also swimming races and tub races. The summary follows Single canoe race, 200 yards: Guy Robbins first; Frank Barr second. Double Indian canoe race: James Manion
